ABOUT YOGA SCOTLAND

Yoga Scotland is a registered Scottish Charity and the Governing Body for yoga in Scotland. Governing body status is recognised by Sport Scotland, the national agency for sport in Scotland. Yoga Scotland has a network of around 300 qualified, registered and insured teachers.

Yoga Scotland promotes the excellent and safe practice of yoga in Scotland through trained, experienced and qualified teachers and provides opportunities for the general public to find out more about yoga.

Yoga Scotland provides teacher training, on-going training for qualified teachers, other courses and seminars for Yoga Scotland members and general members of the public, advice, information and standards in the practice and development of yoga in Scotland. In addition to this Yoga Scotland works with other organisations to encourage and promote the practice and development of yoga, in particular, Yoga Scotland has developed a close working relationship with the British Wheel of Yoga (BWY), recognised as the Governing Body for yoga in England.

THE YOGA SCOTLAND TEACHING DIPLOMA

Yoga Scotland provides training courses for prospective yoga teachers. These are part-time courses lasting for two years, and are currently run in Edinburgh and Glasgow starting alternate years. Yoga Scotland is also planning a new Teacher Training course to start in Stonehaven this year.

Trainees who successfully complete the course will be awarded the Yoga Scotland Teaching Diploma.

It is important that all teachers of Yoga are trained by an accredited organisation recognised by the Governing Body before being allowed to teach in, or be employed by, sports centres, schools or colleges or working for themselves. Yoga Scotland is recognised by Sport Scotland as the foremost body for training yoga teachers in Scotland.

Yoga Scotland's Public Liability Insurance covers all its trained and registered yoga teachers. Insurance is included in the course fee as part of Student Teacher membership of Yoga Scotland.

Tutors will advise students on their readiness to begin teaching.
